This review verifies the reproducibility of the exhibits included in the paper “The Unintended Impacts of an Intimate Partner Violence Prevention Program: Experimental Evidence from Rwanda”.

Contents in this review:

1. Main findings
2. List of exhibits and reproducibility status
3. Reproduction Environment

Main findings

- The code was successfully executed on a new computer after:
 1. Changing the file paths and running the do files as specified in the README file.
- The output demonstrates consistent stability across multiple runs. Specifically, executing the code two times consecutively yielded identical results.
- The code takes approximately 15 minutes to run.
- We conducted our reproducibility analysis based on the paper shared by the authors by email on January 3rd.
- Every exhibit has been reproduced accurately.
- Reproducibility Summary:
 - Data: All data is not yet publicly available but is expected to be made available through the World Bank Microdata Library in the future.
 - Code: All code files (from cleaning to analysis) are included in the reproducibility package.
 - Outputs: All outputs are generated by code included in the reproducibility package.
 - Reproducibility verification: Reviewers used data provided directly by the authors to conduct the reproducibility verification, and this is not included in the public reproducibility package. The reviewers did not verify if publicly available data matches the data provided by the authors.
 - Dependencies environment: The reviewers created a new environment for dependencies using the latest versions available for each dependency at the moment of the review.
